

Lessons Learned and Final Code Review Scoring Rubric

Minimum Requirements

Your submission will score 0 points if it does not meet the following requirements.

- The submitted file must consist of a single file.
- The submitted file must be a PDF document.
- The submitted file must be named P3 Lessons Learned.pdf.
- The submitted file must contain your team name and number on the first page.
- The submitted Github link must link to your Github repository.
- The submitted file must be original work completed solely by students on the submitting team.
- The submitted file CANNOT be a duplicate of lessons learned or code for other teams at your school or within your organization!

Lessons Learned
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • First section begins with the header: Experience Gained • First section describes what your team gained from the Botball experience • Second section begins with the header: Documentation Process • Second section describes what your team gained from the documentation process. • Third section begins with the header: Surprises • Third section describes what surprised you most about the Botball experience • Final section begins with the header: Advice for Future Teams • Final section lists any advice you would pass along to future Botball teams 	5 points
	20 points
	5 points
	20 points
	5 points
	20 points
	5 points
	20 points
Code
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A Github account for the team has been created and at least two commits or pull requests containing code have been made during the Botball season. • A link has been provided on the submission upload page and if it is a private repository it has been shared with KIPR-Submissions 	50 points
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • One of the pull requests or commits must have been made between the second and third period documentation deadlines